

At Hyatt Regency Coolum we know that you have an almost endless selection of conference venues to pick from, so why should you choose us? We believe that we offer not only the best facilities and service, but also one of the best locations and ‘most fun’ of any conference venue in Australia, so we’ve put together our top 15 reasons why you should conference with us.

What makes Hyatt Regency Coolum a great conference venue?

1. We are the largest Sunshine Coast conference venue –

We can cater for events from 10 to 1200 people.

2. We are close to the Sunshine Coast airport – Our convenient location makes transfers a breeze.

3. Space to work... and play – The resort is situated on 150 hectares of natural woodland and boasts two kilometres of pristine beach.

4. Everything you need is here – Hyatt Regency Coolum is a ‘village within a resort’, so everything you need is here, from a convenience store and bottle shop, to five on-site restaurants and a nightclub.

5. We’re a world away – Our stunning and tranquil setting makes it feel like we’re a world away from the everyday, providing a relaxing setting for your delegates. And because we are a world unto ourselves, you have a ‘captive audience’ for your conference, with no distractions.

6. We boast a completely refurbished convention centre where all rooms feature natural light – We have 16 different, unique, flexible conference rooms perfect for holding everything from a gala ball to an executive board meeting.

7. You can enjoy outdoor undercover terraced break options – Our wonderful outdoor breakout areas give delegates the chance to enjoy the fabulous Sunshine Coast weather, 365 days a year.

8. Incredible conference support – Our on-site audio visual company and technicians are always there to help.

9. Food and beverage packages that are second to none – Our competitive food and beverage packages include a huge selection of options for breakfast, lunch and dinner as well as themed banquet catering, smoothie breaks, revitalise breaks, chocolate breaks, numerous private dining options and outside catering options. And we have a package to suit every budget.

10. A dedicated activities department – Our great team can help create the perfect team-building suite of activities for your conference.

11. Incredible leisure facilities with a difference – These include:

- An 18 hole championship golf course complete with driving range and golf professionals
- A floodlit tennis centre with stadium seating for 350 people complete with tennis professionals
- The largest spa facility in the southern hemisphere
- A two kilometre long beach with lifeguard tower (patrolled 365 days a year)
- A private beach club complete with pool and BBQ area
- Nine swimming pools
- A Creative Arts Centre
- An Italian style Village Square complete with restaurants, shops and pool area – the ideal social meeting place

12. A variety of private and luxurious accommodation options for couples and families – From our spacious 46sqm entry level rooms to our private and exclusive Ambassador Villas.

13. A dedicated transport department – Our friendly transport staff can organise everything from airport transfers, to transport around the resort, to trip share options.

14. Spouse programs – Ideal for conferences where partners are welcome. Why should only conference delegates get all the fun?

15. A dedicated helipad – For those who like to arrive in style.

Call 07 5446 1234 to talk to one of our dedicated conference organisers today about arranging a conference to suit your budget, or go online to email hrcoolum.sales@hyatt.com to request an online proposal.