Hyatt Regency Denver announces
Chocolate Lovers' Lounge Valentine's Weekend
Amour Package offered at Special Rate

(Denver, CO – Jan., 2010) Peaks Lounge at Hyatt Regency Denver at Colorado Convention Center celebrates Valentine's Day weekend with a special presentation of chocolate and wine pairings February 11th through February 14th. With views overlooking the Mile High City lights, guests are invited to indulge in four tasting stations pairing a variety of 19 chocolates from around the world with champagne, port, red wines and dessert wines. Complementing it is a menu of 23 desserts created by Pastry Chef Joel Gaillot which features:

- Almond Stuffed Figs dipped in Chocolate and Candied Orange Zest
- Flourless Chocolate Torte with Rose Water Fondant
- Cherry Clafouti
- Dark Chocolate Mousse on a Sweet Baguette topped with Sea Salt
- Milk Chocolate Cheesecake Bites
- Lemon Curd Tarts
- Brandy Snap filled with Caramelized Peaches and Vanilla-Black Pepper Pastry Cream
- Cherry Amaretto Truffles
- Fresh Apricots filled with Whipped Brie, Local Honey and Caramel

Approximately 400 pounds of chocolate will be used throughout the weekend, making the selections especially decadent.

Peaks Lounge, located on the hotel's 27th floor, is ideal for a celebration such as this. The warm and inviting décor is enhanced with floor to ceiling windows that grace a three-side radius, making the outside cityscape the key feature of its ambiance.

Served from 7:00PM to midnight, the price for the Peaks Chocolate Lounge wine pairing is $15 per person per station. For all four stations, the price is $45 per person. Reservations are recommended and may be made by calling (303) 486-4433.
