GRAND HYATT DENVER SHOWCASES GROWING AND COOKING WITH COLORADO HERBS
Package complements Denver Botanic Garden's
Urban Nature Exhibit presented by Wells Fargo

(Denver, CO---April, 2008) The staff of the AAA Four Diamond award-winning Grand Hyatt Denver Downtown announces a special package in partnership with the Denver Botanic Gardens for the upcoming Urban Nature Exhibit presented by Wells Fargo. In addition to an overnight stay in a spacious Grand Hyatt accommodation, the Herbal Garden Package includes two passes to the Botanic Garden exhibit and a $10 gift certificate to the Grand Hyatt's restaurant 1876. The package, valid now through November 30, 2008, starts at $159 per room per night and is subject to availability.

Beginning with the launch of the Urban Nature Exhibit, the Grand Hyatt's restaurant, 1876, named for the year Colorado became a state, features a special prix fixe menu showcasing dishes made with Colorado products and herbs that are indigenous to the mountainous area. Offered in addition to the restaurant's regular a la carte selections, this "green" three-course menu is available for dinner only for $52.80 per couple (tax and gratuity not included). Patrons also receive a recipe card from Chef Tom Baranoucky and tips on growing herbs in the region from Denver Botanic Gardens Director of Horticulture, Sarada Krishnan.
