Hyatt Regency Maui Resort and Spa Announces Exclusive Cirque Polynesia for Summer Only

Hawaii's newest and only dedicated "cirque" production that includes some of the world's most acclaimed cirque performers

KA'ANAPALI, Maui, Hawaii – June 16, 2009 – Hyatt Regency Maui Resort and Spa now showcases "Cirque Polynesia" – Hawaii's newest "must see" show with performances nightly except Tuesday. The 75-minute show features back-to-back performances that offer power, grace and sophistication, including sixth- and seventh-generation family members of the legendary Wallenda family.

Cirque Polynesia combines the influence of Polynesia, with the mystery and drama of modern day Cirque. The show provides non-stop action with a blend of aerial acrobats and illusionists, masters of balance, and quick change transformations in an intimate stage setting with state-of-the-art lighting. The show's original musical score features classically trained cellist, flute, ukulele and strings musician Diane Salonga Rubio along with Dan Cruces on keyboards, drums, electric percussion and trumpet.

Cirque artists include performer from Hawaii, Russia, Germany, Kazakhstan and Moldova (Eastern Europe).

"The combination of artistry and human ability in this show is a true entertainment extravaganza unlike any other in Hawaii," said General Manager Michael Jokovich of Hyatt Regency Maui Resort and Spa. "The inspiring performance is for both young and old that should not be missed while visiting Maui during summer vacation."
