Hyatt Regency Orlando International Airport Received AAA Four Diamond Award

ORLANDO, Fla. – Hyatt Regency Orlando International Airport is the recipient of the 2009 AAA Four Diamond Award, denoting Excellence in Service and Facilities. Only three percent of the over 32,000 properties approved by AAA achieve this prestigious designation.

“Achieving the AAA Four Diamond Award is not an easy task to accomplish” stated Pat Engfer, General Manager. “I am very proud of each and every member of our staff who worked together as a team to earn this prestigious recognition once again.”

According to AAA, the definition of a Four Diamond Recipient – “These establishments are upscale in all areas. Accommodations are progressively more refined and stylish. The physical attributes reflect an obvious enhanced level of quality throughout. The fundamental hallmarks at this level include an extensive array of amenities combined with a high degree of hospitality, service, and attention to detail.”

Hyatt Regency Orlando International Airport is located atop the main terminal at (MCO) Orlando International Airport, just minutes away from local attractions. The 445-room hotel offers four-star accommodations, accompanied with 42,000 square feet of flexible, meeting space, two restaurants, state of the art fitness center, and an outdoor pool with spectacular views. Recently renovated, its spacious modern guestrooms lend itself as the ideal location for business travel.
