Hyatt Regency Orlando International Airport Wins
Gold Key Award for 2007
Presented by Meetings & Conventions magazine

ORLANDO, Fla. – Hyatt Regency Orlando International Airport wins prominent industry award.

Meetings & Conventions magazine recently announced the winners of its prestigious Gold Key Award for 2007. For 30 years this annual award has been bestowed upon the world's finest meeting properties.

All winners of this award of excellence were nominated and selected by the readers of M&C, who based their votes on the overall professionalism and quality of the property. Meeting planners selected their winning properties based on strict industry criteria including: staff attitude; quality of meeting rooms; quality of guest services; food and beverage service; proficiency of handling reservations; availability of technical/support equipment and range of recreational facilities.

“The Gold Key Award represents the precise embodiment of what our hotel and staff represent.” comments Pat Engfer, General Manager. We could not be more thrilled to receive such an illustrious award.

“The dedication to quality has always been a trademark of M&C's readers who represent the highest level of meeting and incentive professionals. The 2007 Gold Key winners have met these tough standards by providing outstanding service,” said Bernard W. Schraer, Meetings & Conventions Group Publisher. “The entire M&C staff commends the properties that have demonstrated the qualities to earn the Gold Key distinction.”

Hyatt Regency Orlando International Airport is located atop the main terminal at (MCO) Orlando International Airport, just minutes away from local attractions. The 445-room hotel offers four-star accommodations, accompanied with 42,000 square feet of flexible, meeting space, two restaurants, state of the art fitness center, and an outdoor pool with spectacular views. Recently renovated, its spacious modern guest rooms lend itself as the ideal location for business travel.
