

J U N I P E RTM

Memories of apothecaries come easy and sharp at Juniper, the gin bar at Andaz. A heavy influence of herbs, botany, tinctures and elixirs permeates through every cocktail offered. The atmosphere, inspired by the erstwhile speakeasy, encourages you to infuse your evenings with stories and experiences beyond the boundaries set by formal, conventional dining.

Don't be a stranger.

DELHI SNAPPER

AROMATIC, MEDITERRANEAN, STIMULATING

Rs 1250

The consumption of gin has never been restricted to evening pastimes. The alcohol is but a vehicle for fragrance and flavour and can be enjoyed, in moderation, at anytime of the day. Historically, an early morning drink would help one rise to the challenge of the day. Some things never change.

Disillusioned by the club soda in his Americano, an Italian Count barked at the bartender to substitute it with gin. Little did he know that he had invented, now largely regarded, the most perfect cocktail. In the 100 years since, few cocktails have invited more experimentation than the Negroni. This fine meld is a buoyant proof.

No, it's not a magical potion that prevents ageing. Gin is the embodiment of the youth spirit that craves company. It is a creation that is preordained to breathe life into botanicals in cocktails and simplify the intricacies that come with it. No wonder so many classic cocktails yearn for gin. The juniper descendant responds, and how!

There's a poetry to crafting an infusion. The sheer thought of the act makes us giddy with possibility. We brought in experts from faraway lands to lend a hand, and get tipsy in the process of answering questions of whimsy. To pair orange with vanilla, or take a risk with cocoa butter? To smoke some oak, or double down on the juniper? What about gin flavoured with pepper and bay leaf, for the days we crave biryani? Each one of these thoughts were pondered over for days, each producing a delicately crafted spirit fit to sit by your side.
