

A DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVE

Many Native American tribes believed the world was divided into sacred regions, each with a distinct color linked to its' natural surroundings. The deep hues of the mountains and the rosy sun-warmed colors of desert sand helped the tribes to orient themselves within the world. Color and nature have brought artists to this desert for centuries—to create and to explore...

We invite you to wander on purpose. The Turquoise pool sits at the heart of Andaz Scottsdale, inspired by this unique perspective of the world, the color wheel will help guide your journey...
