

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

Announced May 10, 2021, outlined below are all 100 Hyatt hotels worldwide participating in Hyatt Loves Local 2021 by collaborating with local businesses impacted by the pandemic. Organized by timely theme, and then by region, please navigate through the document by clicking the headers within the Table of Content below.

THEMES

EMPHASIZING WELLNESS

With a focus on safety first and wellbeing always, Hyatt is reimagining the hotel journey with new well-being amenities and offerings that support local well-being providers who were forced to reduce or reshape their offerings during the pandemic.

REIMAGINING HOTEL GIFT SHOPS

Hyatt properties are taking onsite retail to new, hyper-local heights by inviting local makers and businesses to create and sell their products on property, resulting in guest experiences that educate and make a positive impact on communities.

PET PROJECTS

Pet adoptions boomed during the pandemic lockdown, with many travelers planning to bring their furry friends along for their next trip. Hyatt hotels are collaborating with local pet businesses to offer pampering and perks to pet travelers.

NEW ON THE MENU

Hyatt hotels are offering space for local food and beverage outlets to showcase their culinary talent in socially distant yet interactive settings.

THE ART OF HOSPITALITY

As museums, movie theaters, and concert venues continue to face strict regulations to curb the spread of COVID-19, consumers are hungrier than ever to reconnect with arts and culture again. Hyatt hotels are serving guests art, music and film experiences in a socially distant manner.

SUPPORT FOR STUDENTS

Student's ability to connect and foster growth has been dramatically impacted by the pandemic, so Hyatt properties are providing space to schools and youth groups to allow for socially distanced classes.

STEPPING UP FOR VOLUNTOURISM

The struggles of the pandemic have inspired many travelers to volunteer their time to support local organizations who have received less volunteer support over the past year and Hyatt hotels are connecting guests with these opportunities.

HOTELS THAT GUIDE

To inspire enriching trips with enhanced safety, Hyatt hotels are directly connecting guests with experienced local tours guides, or directing the tour themselves to connect guests with historic local businesses.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

EMPHASIZING WELLNESS

AMERICAS

- Ambassador Chicago, a JDV by Hyatt hotel, is collaborating with the fitness app, Fitbod, to provide guests with complimentary customized workouts using equipment in the newly renovated fitness center or for in-room workouts. Available through 2021, guests can partake in tailored workouts while the app gains exposure and support. See details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Andaz San Diego is collaborating with minority-owned LR Dance & Fitness to boost awareness of the local studio and its owner Lovelyn Redfearn – aka, “Love” – by offering rooftop space for dance/fitness classes once a week, as well as a larger monthly event featuring a DJ, food & beverage discounts, and more. The classes are free for registered guests and $10-$15 for walk-ins; World of Hyatt locals need only to show their World of Hyatt number and sign a waiver at the front desk. Since Lovelyn pivoted to building LR Dance & Fitness during the pandemic, her business has grown 5% with the help of the hotel and increased class sizes allowing her to collaborate with other businesses and expand outside of San Diego. See images and b-roll HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Andaz Scottsdale Resort & Bungalows (Ariz.) is extending its collaboration with female-owned ballet barre specialists Barre3 to offer guests and locals fitness classes from the property’s indoor/outdoor fitness studio and lawns with views of Camelback Mountain. After temporarily closing one of its two studios, Barre3 was looking for safe, outdoor spaces to offer classes and the hotel stepped in to support. Through these additional classes, Barre3 was able to keep its second studio open. Free for guests and $25 for locals, the fitness sessions started in September 2020 and will continue five days a week through April. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Grand Hyatt Playa del Carmen (Mexico) in an effort to support a local business and provide elevated fitness classes for its guest, has begun a collaboration with ROLA, a female-owned spin studio, offering beachfront classes. With multiple classes available Monday through Sunday, guests can enjoy scenic views and a rewarding workout. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

AMERICAS

- Hyatt Centric Downtown Portland (Ore.) has created a “Self-Care” room package featuring My Aroma Rocks, a local female-owned, mind-body-spirit wellbeing company specializing in aromatherapy and home spa products, and Aesthete Tea, a local female-, QBIPOC-owned organic loose-leaf tea and herbal blend brand. Like many hand crafters, these businesses were impacted by the cancellation of vendor and wellness events throughout the pandemic. To further support the businesses, 5% of the revenue from packages booked will go directly to My Aroma Rocks and Aesthete Tea. Launched April 11, this package will be available to guests through the summer with the potential to extend further. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Hyatt Centric The Loop Chicago is providing guests with low impact full body workouts by sharing the hotel’s space with Pure Barre River North and Streeterville, including a fitness class that combines Pilates, yoga, and dance. Due to the pandemic, all in-studio group exercise classes were suspended in 2020 and Pure Barre had to pivot operations to virtual offerings. Upon re-opening, class sizes were limited due to social distancing and the hotel offered its AIRE rooftop bar space as a solution. Classes are confirmed to start in June and available to hotel guests and the local community. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting rivernorth@purebarre.com.
- Hyatt House at Anaheim Resort/Convention Center (Calif.) is offering discounted rates to all traveling nurses through a state HRS program to make nurse’s stays a bit less stressful. In addition to offering free parking and breakfast to traveling nurses, the hotel is also next door to the area’s biggest Covid-19 vaccine site, so it offers free parking to anyone who needs it for a vaccination. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 714 750 4000.
- Hyatt Regency Coconut Point Resort & Spa (Bonita Springs, Fla.) has donated two large outdoor spaces for the finale of Yoga Week SWFL, a female-owned week-long program promoting wellness and wellbeing with local instructors whose small businesses were forced to pause because of the pandemic. Taking place at Hyatt Regency Coconut Point on Sunday, April 25, 2021, tickets to attend the series start at $65 and are open to locals and guests. Looking ahead, the property is working with the event organizer to launch a monthly yoga series for both resort guests and locals on the property’s lawn. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

EMPHASIZING WELLNESS

AMERICAS

- Hyatt Regency Hill Country Resort & Spa (San Antonio) has been collaborating with local USMC veteran- and female-owned yoga studio Southtown Yoga Loft since October 2020 to offer guests and locals on-property, socially distant outdoor yoga classes. Due to capacity limitations surrounding the pandemic, Hyatt Regency Hill Country stepped in to provide additional class space for the Southtown Yoga team to reach more customers, many of which shared they're more inclined to attend now that an outdoor option is available. Since the collaboration began, Southtown Yoga has seen attendance increase each weekend and are therefore offering more classes, including one class a day Monday-Friday and two classes a day on Saturday and Sunday for $12/class. Class size will continue to be limited to ensure social distance between participants, book a reservation HERE. See images HERE.
- Montaneros in Vail (Colo.), a Destination by Hyatt hotel, is boosting exposure for Revolution Power Yoga, a local female-owned yoga studio that lost business for its in-studio classes and trainings due to COVID-19. The hotel is streaming classes for free on its website for guests to enjoy from the comfort of their room, or they have the option of attending a socially distant, in-person class at the studio. Launched in January 2021, the collaboration is ongoing through 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Thompson Nashville (Tenn.) is collaborating with minority-owned Invigorate Health, a local provider of IV drips to cure dehydration, boost vitamin C and more, to offer the "Boost Your Stay... in a Wellness Way" package. The package offers guests an IV immune boost on demand either in-room or inside Invigorate Health's to-go van, a fresh revitalizing "Gulch Gulp" juice packed with good-for-you ingredients including ginger, kale, apple and more, as well as guest room accommodations. The package must be booked at least 24 hours prior to arrival, and is valid through 2021. The sales from the IV therapy portion of the package go directly to Invigorate Health. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

EUROPE AND SOUTHWEST ASIA

- Hotel du Palais (Biarritz, France), part of The Unbound Collection by Hyatt, is collaborating with the revolutionary stand up paddle board company to offer guests fun toys to try out and enjoy the Atlantic seas that the property sits on. The 50+ year old, family-owned business is based in the Basque country and has an eco-responsible approach aimed at respecting our oceans. The property offers LOEVA the opportunity to test their creations live with the hotel's clientele and thus gain visibility and access to potential customers. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +33 5 59 41 12 34.
- Hyatt Regency Chandigarh (India) is prioritizing wellness-focused offerings for guests through its collaborations with local businesses that were greatly impacted by COVID-19. Wellness brand H2 Origin had to permanently close their brick-and-mortar space, so the hotel is providing complimentary space in the hotel's Amaira Spa & Club to lead guided meditation and yoga classes for guests beginning in May. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +91 172 4401234.

ASIA-PACIFIC

- Hyatt Regency West Hanoi (Vietnam) is working with California Fitness Yoga (CFY) to offer guests and locals daily, live, virtual work out sessions 5 times a week via guestroom TVs and personal mobile devices. CFY was forced to close all branches during the height of the pandemic and have since only reopened half of those locations. This collaboration provides CFY with an opportunity to connect directly with potential customers, and provides guests an easy way to workout with enhanced safety in mind. The sessions which launched in May are complimentary for guests and will be available through 2021. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +84 24 2230 1234.
- Grand Hyatt Singapore is collaborating with the country's leading sportswear brand Kydra to empower people to adopt a wellness-driven lifestyle with a new staycation experience. This wellness-driven "Recharge Retreat" includes a night's stay in a Grand Deluxe Room, a set of Kydra active wear valued at $112, a variety of guided activities, a nutrition talk, spa treatments and nutrition-focused meals to make guests feel recharged by the experience. Introduced in January 2021, the package has been well received and is scheduled on select dates through July 2021 with limited spots available to ensure that guests have a focused experience with mindfulness being at the center. The retreat begins at $760 for single occupancy, $1,180 for double occupancy. See images and b-roll HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

PET PROJECTS

AMERICAS

- Ambassador Chicago, a JDV by Hyatt hotel, is also working with luxury pet boutique, Tails in the City, to create the “PAWsome Experience” package, which includes treats, pick up bags, a toy, and local information for guests’ pet to experience Chicago. This package is available to guests through the end of 2021. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 312 787 3700.
- Hyatt House Dallas Richardson is making all furry friends feel welcome with their collaboration with BIPOC-owned Lucy Lu Doggy Treats. Owner LaShonda Walpool was in radio and entertainment for more than 20 years before being laid off as a result of the pandemic. In 2020, LaShonda pivoted to launch Lucy Lu Doggy Treats and in March the hotel began promoting the doggy treats with a complimentary display adjacent to the front desk. The products are easily accessible for guests or locals to purchase via a QR code created by Walpool through June 2021. See more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Hyatt House Virginia Beach / Oceanfront (Va.) is promoting pet wellness through its collaboration with Sitters by the Sea, a female-owned pet and house-sitting service in need of customer exposure, to offer valued World of Hyatt members 15% off pet sitting, dog walking and other pet-related services. The promotion will be ongoing through 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 757 428 4200.

SOUTHWEST ASIA

- Andaz Delhi (India) is working with animal rescue, medical and adoption shelter, Touch and Treat Animal Trust, to build a community where people value and respect stray animals. Guests are invited to volunteer daily to help feed strays or with rescue missions to support this very important cause. This collaboration began in March 2021 and is ongoing through the year. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +91 11 49031234.
- Grant Hyatt Goa (India) is committed to supporting local NGO Welfare for Animals (WAG) - an organization dedicated to rescuing stray animals from the streets of North Goa. As part of this collaboration, animal-lovers staying on property have the opportunity to spend a day volunteering to help injured and stray animals under the care of WAG. Alternatively, guests can sponsor an animal for a year as a way to ensure their long-term care. This collaboration began in 2018 and is ongoing through 2021. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +91 832 301 1234.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

THE ART OF HOSPITALITY

AMERICAS

- Andaz 5th Avenue (New York City) is collaborating with local graffiti artist Vince Ballentine to paint murals of Black female authors within its Artist in Residence space facing 5th Avenue, as well as on the door and corner of the building. In conjunction, the New York Public Library, which remains closed due to COVID, is supporting the work of Ballentine by sourcing a curated selection of Black female authors to be featured in the hotel's lobby library nook. The artist began working on March 4, 2021 and the installation and book-nook selection will likely remain until May. See more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Grand Hyatt Atlanta Buckhead is helping local BIPOC oil portrait and illustration artist, Dwayne Mitchell of D'Arts Portraits, showcase his work and gain exposure. Known for his commissioned work for Hartsfield-Jackson Intl. Airport and several HBCU's, samples of D'Arts Portraits will be displayed in the hotel and available for sale beginning in May. Also, Dwayne is a security employee of Grand Hyatt Atlanta; the hotel continues to support its staff and small businesses as this collaboration will be expanded to include other local artists. See more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Grand Hyatt Playa del Carmen (Mexico) is working with its now resident DJ, Santiago Barros, to create an entertaining atmosphere by the pool and food & beverage outlets six days a week. Due to the pandemic, business had slowed for the DJ and in looking to bring guests new experiences, the hotel brought him on as permanent entertainment. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Grand Hyatt Vail (Colo.) is offering space for Art by Agostina to sell her locally created and inspired artworks to guests and visitors with the opportunity to watch her work in real time as well. A self-taught artist and architect from Argentina, Agostina, who uses a stippling technique for highly detailed drawings, had been unable to find space to sell to her works during the pandemic and turned to the hotel for help. The hotel is hosting pop-ups for Agostina in the lobby on the second and third Fridays of each month, except May. The hotel also continues to host a pop-up shop for Wild Heart, a women's clothing boutique owned by a former employee that after being forced to close by COVID has now seen an uptick in social media followers and business return to pre-pandemic levels or better. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 970 476 1234.

AMERICAS

- Hotel Revival Baltimore, a JDV by Hyatt hotel, is continuing their commitment to supporting local, black-owned businesses by supplying the hotel with toilet paper from West Baltimore-based, female-owned Lor Tush. Touting a sustainable product made of 100% bamboo, Lor Tush launched six months early after seeing the demand for toilet paper at the height of the pandemic. The brand also launched Lor Help in March – an effort to provide a free 6-pack of toilet paper to families or individuals who lost income as a result of the pandemic. As part of this collaboration, Hotel Revival is also pitching in by distributing 5,000 rolls to community members in need. See images and b-roll HERE and additional information on the collaboration HERE.
- Hyatt Centric San Isidro Lima (Peru) has been teaming up with Alianza de Diseñadores de Moda del Perú since 2019, an alliance of 15 prominent local designers focused on ancient Peruvian textiles, to provide space on property for them to operate. Due to pandemic restrictions, Alianza de Diseñadores was forced to adapt to a digital-only platform throughout 2020, until Hyatt Centric San Isidro Lima opened up their lobby, rooms, and terraces to host their annual parade event. In turn, the alliance is supporting institutions, NGOs, and people from their most vulnerable communities in difficult situations. More details regarding the collaboration can be found by contacting +1 512 439 1234.
- Hyatt Centric Waikiki Beach (Hawaii) is supporting native-Hawaiian street artist Jack Soren of Jack Soren Art. As a full-time artist painting murals, displaying in galleries and at festivals, Jack's access to business opportunities has been hindered by continued pandemic-related closures in Honolulu. Therefore, following a mural collaboration at the hotel's bar Diamond Head in 2019, the property is re-engaging Jack in lieu of Kakaako's annual POW! WOW! Hawai'i Street Art Festival, (which typically draws in a global presence), to a commission a highly stylized, vibrant surfboard for display in the lobby. As part of the ongoing collaboration, the property commissioned an island inspired mural, titled Lei'd Back, which now serves as the centerpiece of the hotel's expansive 8th floor lobby. See images and b-roll HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Hyatt Regency Austin (Texas) has been collaborating with local app startup Music Firsthand since October 2020 to book musicians for their weekly live music series called Regency Rhythms. The socially distant, complimentary live music set has quickly become beloved by guests and locals alike, and features a sushi pop-up bar that takes place from 5-7 p.m. on the Marker 10 Patio. This collaboration is aimed at supporting local musicians who have struggled to book gigs during the pandemic, while providing a sense of goodwill as the community recovers. See more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

THE ART OF HOSPITALITY

AMERICAS

- Hyatt Regency Mission Bay Spa and Marina (San Diego) is collaborating with Seaside Cinema to provide personalized, private outdoor movie experiences on the property's Banyan Court and Lawn, with views of Mission Bay. Husband & wife-team Brian and Krystil Hofmann, launched the business after one of the founders was abruptly laid off from her corporate job due to the pandemic to provide a friendly, socially distanced alternative to indoor movie theaters. The complimentary space on property offers Seaside Cinema priceless exposure to thousands of guests that pass through the hotel each month. Available daily at sunset, guests can cast the movie of their choice starting at $300 for 1.5 hours and are offering an exclusive 10% discount to guests, and an enhanced lighting package available to World of Hyatt members. This collaboration is ongoing through 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Hyatt Regency Scottsdale (Ariz.) is extending its Untapped music event to further its commitment to featuring live entertainment on its Center Stage Bar stage. During this unique time, the hotel continues to open its stage on the third Thursday of the month from 6-9:30pm for local artists to perform and share their talents with the local community. Rather than use a booking agent, the hotel is continuing to work with The Waters, a local music duo themselves, to keep up and coming musicians booked and supported. With no end in sight, Untapped Thursdays at Hyatt Regency Scottsdale are now a community staple. See images and b-roll HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Hyatt Place Madison/Downtown (Wisc.) is offering free space in its lobby to two businesses that were hit hard when retail stores closed last spring due to local pandemic restrictions. Female-owned Revel will sell its line of arts and crafts kits, ranging in price from $15-$20, while minority- and female-owned Marie Hunter Beauty will sell lipstick at $32 a pop. This collaboration launched in February and will be available for guests and locals through 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 608 257 2700.
- Hyatt Place - Peña Station/Denver Airport is literally making music with Vision Quest Entertainment - a female-owned business providing local musicians with opportunities to book gigs in Denver. Together, they are providing full-time musician Rob Wivchar, who's struggled to find work throughout the pandemic, an opportunity for monthly on-property concerts. Ongoing since February 2021 through 2021, the concert series provides Rob with some consistency as the industry recovers and provides guests a fun, live music experience in the lobby/bar area. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 720 405 4321.

AMERICAS

- Hyatt Place Tegucigalpa (Honduras) is working with a group of local Honduran musicians called Los Bohemios to host live concerts by the hotel's pool, that are recorded and enjoyed virtually by locals and guests alike. Los Bohemios struggled to book gigs during the pandemic, with most concerts and private events canceled. This collaboration provides the music group with consistent income they can rely on, while providing guests and locals with a live music experience after months of lockdown. The first concert was in April, with additional ones planned on monthly basis through the summer. See more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Park Hyatt Chicago is providing gig opportunities to part-time Egyptian-born musician Alex Wasily to perform in the property's outdoor garden during select weekend brunches beginning in June 2021. An amazing performer who leads a three-piece band of local musicians and teaches music to children at DePaul University, Wasily's livelihood has been affected due to COVID restrictions at bars and restaurants where he typically performs. As a mixologist on the side, Park Hyatt Chicago is also selling Alex's bottled syrup, Gold Fashioned Syrup, by the bottle as well as making delicious cocktails with it. A portion of a proceeds from both are being donated to support a different non-profit at every event, beginning with the Chicago Arts and Music Project (CAMP). This collaboration will not only help Wasily have some consistent business to rely on, but offers guests and locals a reimagined concert experience on property. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 312 335 1234.
- Alila Diwa Goa (India) has opened doors of opportunity for an artist and an entrepreneur. Jim Fernandes, a local singer and musician, and Moinuddin, a local food cart owner, both saw opportunities dry up when restaurants and hotels shut down during the pandemic. Fernandes is now being paid by the hotel to perform live for guests on Saturdays from 7-10pm, with potential to pick up other gigs, while Moinuddin is one of the hotel's regular vendors providing food carts for onsite events. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +91 832 2746800.
- Alila Fort Bishangarh (India) is collaborating with villagers who lost contracts for their services during the long pandemic shutdown. The hotel provides venues for artist Mohammed Rafiq Khan to perform Rajasthani Sufi folk arts, support for Ms. Leela's work with the Fort's organic farm and livestock, and work for Matu Singh and his crew with the hotel's real estate development. The collaborations are ongoing through 2021. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +91 142 227 6500.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

THE ART OF HOSPITALITY

MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTHWEST ASIA

- Grand Hyatt Amman (Jordan) is collaborating with Alana Art Studio and Ecstatic Jewelry, offering each female-owned business onsite space to conduct painting workshops and jewelry shows, respectively. The events began prior to Ramadan in 2021 and will continue, sometimes together, on a monthly basis thereafter. Alana's workshops are available at $30 per person including all painting equipment; Ecstatic's jewelry runs $500 to $2,000; the hotel only charges for food & beverage orders. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +962 6 465 1234.
- Grand Hyatt Mumbai Hotel and Residences (India) is collaborating to help sisters, Sujata and Taniya (Su and Ta), behind saree- and apparel-maker Suta Private Limited bounce back from a shutdown during the pandemic. The hotel is collaborating with Suta to offer various programs featuring the brand's owners and artisans, including a High Tea and panel discussion for female entrepreneurs in June 2021 (invite-only), a weekly pop-up at Grand Brunch on Sundays for Suta to display and sell their collection, and private experiences for guests and locals including "Know and Experience Indigenous Crafts of India," "Learn Indian Draping Styles," and "Learn an age-old Indian craft directly from Suta artisans." More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +91 22 66761234.
- Park Hyatt Dubai (United Arab Emirates) is working to bolster business in the local community by offering locally founded companies affected by the pandemic use of its meeting room for three hours at no cost, plus a 15% discount on food & beverage. The offer is through May 2021. See and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

STEPPING UP FOR VOLUNTOURISM

AMERICAS

- Andaz Maui at Wailea Resort (Hawaii) is giving back through their collaboration with Pu'u Kukui Watershed Preserve (PKW) - the largest private natural preserve in Hawaii. Spanning more than 9,000 acres of Mauna Kahālawai, the property is providing complimentary lobby space for PKW to set up a pop-up informational booth with the goal of encouraging guests and locals to learn about the preserve's conservation efforts, volunteer and donate. PKW was severely impacted by the lack of tourism to Maui due to COVID-19 so as tourism picks back up again, the property is excited to support PKW's efforts and offer guests and locals an opportunity to support the community. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 808 573 1234.
- Hyatt Regency Calgary (Alberta, Canada) is taking Hyatt Loves Local to the next level by participating in an ongoing collaboration with Calgary Community Fridge, a project that provides fresh groceries on a "give what you can, take what you need" basis. Come summer, the hotel will be growing and harvesting its own vegetables and greens on its rooftop garden to be donated to the community fridge. Hyatt Regency Calgary will then identify a special group of Harvest Gatherers composed of locally-based World of Hyatt members including local food bloggers, meeting planners and corporate partners. This group will be invited to the hotel when it's time to harvest the produce and will also be involved in safely packaging the items that will be donated to the Calgary Community Fridge. The Harvest Gatherers will be briefed on food safety and wear protective gear prior to harvesting. The number of invited volunteers will be based on the group gathering restrictions implemented by the local government at the time. In terms of dropping off the packaged produce, this will be executed by the hotel's executive sous chef and/or a member of the Leadership Committee. The first harvest is expected in June and will last until early Fall, which marks the end of the growing season in Calgary and will continue on a yearly basis from then on. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

EUROPE, AFRICA AND SOUTHWEST ASIA

- Alila Diwa Goa (India) is collaborating with local Podhers, Goa's local bread bakers who prepare fresh breads like Goan pois, to offer guests the opportunity to volunteer to prepare fresh breads and learn the traditional art of breadmaking. The collaboration not only brings in business for the Podhers but after cooking, guests can give back and donate some delicious goods to feed children at local community center, El Shaddai. This collaboration began a few years back and is currently on hold due to lockdown restrictions but will resume once lifted. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +91 832 274 6800.
- Hyatt Regency Addis Ababa (Ethiopia) is offering two opportunities for guests to volunteer and make an impact locally. At Degnet Humanitarian, an organization aimed at improving the lives of underprivileged children, guests can volunteer their time to teach basic computer skills, participate in dance or drama classes, read books, lead in mentorship classes and more. This ongoing collaboration began in January 2020 and is available year-round, Monday-Saturday. With Teki Paper Bags, a family-owned, deaf-run paper bag company who communicate and run their businesses via Ethiopian sign language, guests have an opportunity to volunteer to support Teki Paper Bags' goal of fighting against plastic pollution. The experience will include meeting the Teki family, learning a few basic Ethiopian signs, and learning to make a bag under the guide of friendly staff members. This collaboration began in July 2019 and is ongoing year-round. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +251 11 517 1234.
- Hyatt Regency Dar es Salaam, The Kilimanjaro (Tanzania) is presenting opportunities for guests to volunteer at Madrasat Nuurul -Hudaa Al-Islamiya Makao Makuu Temeke, a children's orphanage about 40 minutes from the property. Guests can spend a few hours playing with and reading to the children, teaching them a bit English and then serving them lunch. Available daily, this collaboration began in June and is ongoing through December 2021. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +255 764 70 1234.
- Párisi Udvar Hotel Budapest, (Hungary), a part of The Unbound Collection by Hyatt, is collaborating with dog shelter, Animal Protection Association of Etyek, to give pet-loving guests an opportunity to help a local shelter. Set in a picturesque setting in one of the emblematic wine regions in the area, guests will spend 2-3 hours volunteering and caring for lovely puppies and dogs including walking and supporting the shelter with tasks. Those that volunteer can even bring their own dog along! Available daily upon request, this collaboration began in April 2021 and is ongoing through the year. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +36 1 576 1600.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

*All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels,
unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.*

STEPPING UP FOR VOLUNTOURISM

ASIA-PACIFIC

- BEI Zhaolong Hotel, (Beijing, China), a JDV by Hyatt hotel, is collaborating with the non-profit Beijing Golden Wings Art Rehabilitation Service Center to further its mission in supporting the physical and mental health of disabled children via the art of rehabilitation. Impressed with the entrepreneurial spirit of the organization's female founder and volunteers, the hotel is organizing onsite events to guide the artistic skills of disabled children and encourage them to follow their dreams. From September 2020 to the end of June, a retail corner of the lobby will show children's artworks, with sales going as a charity donation to the organization. Early sales generated over $1,800. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +86 10 8541 0000.
- Park Hyatt Maldives Hadahaa is working in conjunction with Parley, an organization that works directly with local groups and island communities to strengthen existing conservation efforts, to help support a range of cleanup and educational efforts including a plastic collection competition at a nearby uninhabited island. In their most recent effort in March 2021, guests and Hyatt colleagues came together to collect more than 700lbs of trash in one day. With plans for additional cleanups in the near future, Park Hyatt Maldives and Parley look to engage guests while working to ensure a better future for the islands. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +960 682 1234.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

REIMAGINING HOTEL GIFT SHOPS

AMERICAS

- Andaz Mayakoba Resort Riviera Maya (Mexico) is working with local Oaxacan fashion and arts businesses and artisans as part of their From Mexico to Andaz series to provide these indigenous collaborators exposure to tourists again. The collaborations include ARIPO de Oaxaca, local handicrafts store whose sales contribute to promoting the development and improvement of life for local artisans; and Angélico Jiménez Hernández of the original Alebrijes family of Oaxaca, who works sustainably to make brightly colored folk art sculptures in forms originally created by his family. The From Mexico to Andaz series, launched in March and will be ongoing through May before they kick off a second series focused on local collaborators from Central Mexico in June. See images and b-roll HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Grand Hyatt Rio de Janeiro (Brazil) is creating a pop-up opportunity for local retail brands to showcase and sell their products on property. Collaborators include Carioca sustainable clothing brand, UZRIO, whose brick-and-mortar store has been temporarily closed since April 2020; 1DKDA, UZRIO's children's line with the same ethos; and Ateliê Culte, an e-commerce jewelry brand launched by a female entrepreneur after her partnership with five multi-brand stores collapsed due to the pandemic. The hotel is offering complimentary space for these brands in the hotel's open-air courtyard where there is a lot of guest and local foot traffic. Kicked off in May, all three brands will be available on Friday-Sunday, 9am-6pm through at least August but with the potential to be extended. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +55 21 3797 1234.
- Grand Hyatt São Paulo (Brazil) is collaborating with Mariah Pedroso Flores, a local female-owned flower decoration service, Be My Guest São Paulo, a tourism agency offering tailored car and concierge services, and Pastel e Caldo de Cana Fe Higa Ltd., an API-owned pastéis bakery, to increase business that's been severely limited by the pandemic. Flores, now a preferred supplier for the hotel, was provided an onsite space to prepare flower arrangements saving her time and transportation cost; Be My Guest was invited to promote its services in the lobby, with promotional fliers distributed throughout the hotel; and Fe Higa is providing his pastéis fresh every Friday to be enjoyed by the hotel's guests and staff and is now participating in the hotel concierge's list of preferred food delivery services. Launched in February, March, and April 2021, respectively, these collaborations are ongoing through 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +55 11 2838 1234.

AMERICAS

- Hāna-Maui Resort (Hawaii), a Destination by Hyatt hotel, is continuing its collaboration with the Hāna Farmer's Market, which supports growers and producers in east Maui with a weekly pop-up market. Starting October 2020, the property opened its kitchen, refrigerator, and Town Center spaces to help facilitate and host the weekly market on Fridays from 3-5 p.m. This ongoing initiative is aimed at supporting the local farming community hit hard during the pandemic, giving guests access to an authentic Hawaiian market. See images and b-roll HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 808 661 1234.
- Hotel 50 Bowery (New York City), a JDV by Hyatt hotel, is continuing its collaboration with the grassroots initiative Welcome to Chinatown, selling coffee mugs by its front desk for $15/per, with proceeds from sales going to support businesses and amplify voices in the city's Chinatown district. In late 2020, the hotel also donated space to the female- and minority-ran organization to host a weekend-long art exhibition, raising $4,000 through ticket sales. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 212 508 8000.
- Hotel Kansas City (Mo.), part of The Unbound Collection by Hyatt, distilled a solution to support J. Rieger & Co., a multigenerational family distillery founded in 1887 that, due to slower business throughout the pandemic, was forced to reduce hours to stay afloat. The hotel teamed up with the distillery to create an exclusive whiskey bottle that's promoted and sold for $50/per bottle in the hotel's lobby. The property looks forward to also collaborating with J. Rieger & Co for an outdoor, rooftop dining pop-up this winter. The collaboration began in late 2020 and is ongoing through 2021 and beyond. See images and b-roll HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 816 685 1228.
- Hyatt Centric Center City Philadelphia is hosting a series of pop-ups in the hotel lobby supporting local, BIPOC- and women-owned businesses and artisans each weekend throughout this summer. Launched the first weekend in June and available to guests and locals alike, the property welcomes Tesoro by Brit Reed, a handmade ethical and sustainable good brand, to kick off the series on June 4-5. To commemorate Juneteenth, the hotel invites October Gallery, one of the oldest African American galleries in the country, followed by Fason de Viv, offering Haitian-inspired fashion designed by a mother/daughter duo. The full schedule is as follows: June 4-5/Tesoro by Brit Reed, June 11-13/Fabric Workshop and Museum, June 18-20/October Gallery, June 25-27/Fason de Viv, July 16-18/Feast Jewelry by Adrienne Manno, July 23-25/Joshua Hebbert. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

REIMAGINING HOTEL GIFT SHOPS

AMERICAS

- Hyatt House Mexico City / Santa Fe is working to increase exposure for female-owned local water brand Agua Alameda, selling bottles of mineral-rich Alameda Water from the melt of the Citlaltepētll volcano that emerges naturally filtered as a spring in Tehuacán, Puebla. Alameda water is featured at H Market for $2.25 for 375 ml, and $2.75 for 1 lt. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +52 55 5282 1234.
- Hyatt Regency Aruba Resort, Spa and Casino is collaborating with a variety of local artists and artisans, some of which were businesses born out of the pandemic to host an exhibition-style community market offering opportunity for key community members to show and sell their products to guests. Among the exhibitors are Aruba Aloe, which demonstrates how to cultivate and use aloe vera; run by a husband-and-wife team, Ecoliving Aruba's products range from natural sponges and garden-grown pickles; Andicuri Hot Sauce made from locally grown mangoes and named for one of the island nation's most beautiful beaches; woman-owned T2Pan's homemade sourdough bread; and more. The first market will be open from 3pm to 7pm on May 5th and are scheduled bi-weekly thereafter. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +011 297 586 1234.
- Hyatt Regency Baltimore is reimagining several spaces within the hotel as it collaborates with minority- and female-owned local businesses in need of office and meeting space to run their companies. Hyatt Regency Baltimore is providing We Are Maud, a gift shop selling sundry items true to the city, office space at no cost to owner, JoAnn Enwezor, and space to display and sell her items in the 24-hour market on property. The hotel is also offering this space to Emergent Wealth Strategies, an insurance and financial planning business; HSF Healthcare Services, Inc., a CPR and Life Safety Training and certification organization; Terra Loft Consulting, a firm helping other small businesses with planning, mentorship, and loan application, to support recurring meetings and every day office needs. The collaboration has benefited the community by allowing these struggling businesses to survive the pandemic with the positive impact to the hotel being the show of community support. Collaborations will continue through the remainder of the year. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 410 528 1234.

AMERICAS

- Hyatt Regency Cartagena (Colombia) is collaborating with Arte Visbal Cartagena, a retail shop that carries traditionally-designed, handmade accessories, home goods and typical Colombian purses known as Mochilas by local artisans from the region of La Guajira. One of the poorest regions of the country, La Guajira and its indigenous people have been greatly impacted by COVID-19. After Arte Visbal Cartagena was forced to close its shop, the hotel stepped in to offer complimentary space near the property's coffee shop for these artisans to make and sell their products onsite one weekend per month. The collaboration, available to guests and locals, began on April 15 and will run through October 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +57 5 694 1234.
- Hyatt Regency Mexico City is collaborating to bring business back to By Mexico, a local company promoting Mexican pride and culture through quality everyday items. The hotel is providing complimentary space in Amado Market to sell souvenirs to guests and locals. Hit hard by the pandemic, By Mexico saw its sales drop considerably but was able to weather the crises by pivoting to collaborate with four additional Mexican entrepreneurs including a young designer, a cocoa factory and an artisanal Mezcal company. This collaboration has been ongoing for a couple of years, and the relationship is long-term and ongoing. See images HERE.
- Hyatt Regency Mexico City is also collaborating with Tuux Mexikoo, a social enterprise that seeks to revalue Mexican handcrafts through commercialization within a fair-trade scheme. The female-owned business collaborates with around 35 artisan communities that normally survive from the sale of crafts to tourists. With tourism paralyzed for months, the hotel wanted to step in and provide lobby space for guests and locals to purchase. The market is available on Tuesdays and Wednesday from May-July with the possibility for extension. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +52 55 5083 1234.
- Hyatt Regency Villahermosa (Mexico) has supported local Tabasqueño food & beverage purveyors since January 2021 through a monthly pop-up shop in the lobby for guests and locals. In March, they sweetened business prospects for two minority-owned chocolate makers, Hacienda Los Abuelos and Chocolates Adiú after each saw a drop in sales and exposure during the pandemic. In April, they spotlighted regional cheese from different towns in Tabasco, and in May they are teaming up with Olmeca Beer. In addition to the shop, the property features these ingredients on their in-house restaurant La Ceiba's, menu each month. This collaboration is available weekends through end of year with new producers each month. More details regarding the collaboration available HERE.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

REIMAGINING HOTEL GIFT SHOPS

AMERICAS

- Hyatt Place San Pedro Sula (Honduras) is offering complimentary space onsite for local food, beverage, product and wellness businesses impacted by the pandemic to operate their businesses and sell their products. Among participating businesses: Juice and beverage business Shanti Cup is collaborating with the hotel on yoga and meditation wellness programming; Fu Tea Shop is offering teas for purchase in The Market and The Gallery; Cerveceria La 20 will be selling their beer in the tap room in the hotel's bar; Salut is selling their bottled juices in The Market and The Gallery and Tostadora Hondurena Del Café created a unique blend of coffee especially for the property. The collaborations began in March and will be ongoing through June. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +504 2570 7600.
- Park Hyatt St. Kitts Christophe Harbour is collaborating with M&M Farms to offer complimentary space for an onsite farmers market for fresh-grown produce, as well as complimentary marketing to draw sales from guests and the local community. A minority-owned, organic farm located on one of the oldest historical estates on the island, M&M Farms saw business drop to a standstill during the pandemic and needed exposure to get back on track and expand. The market began in March 2021 will be available the first Sunday, 11AM-3PM each month through 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 869 468 1234.

EUROPE, AFRICA AND SOUTHWEST ASIA

- Andaz Delhi (India) has two artisanal food collaborators: Darima Farms, a female-run maker of all-natural, preservative-free cheese in the village of Darima, and House of Umang, a female-run collective of producers, specializing in honey. The pandemic was a blessing in disguise for Darima Farms, which saw demand for indigenous cheese increase as cheese imports dwindled. Meanwhile, after ringing up no sales in the first quarter of 2020, House of Umang went online and saw its sales rise. Both are featured at the hotel's award-winning food hall AnnaMaya, whose slogan – "Eat Mindful. Shop Artisanal. Raise Awareness" – has been inspiring guests since its inception in 2016. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Andaz Vienna Am Belvedere (Austria) is collaborating with an initiative to support the local fashion and clothing industry in Vienna called Mode Wien. The property is working to raise awareness of the local fashion industry which was impacted by COVID-19 shutdowns by selling a special collection called Eugene21 that was created by designers of Mode Wien and inspired by Prince Eugene of Savoy. The Eugene21 collection will be available for sale in the hotel's lobby as well as worn by staff to raise awareness with guests. The collaboration began in March and is ongoing through 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

EUROPE, AFRICA AND SOUTHWEST ASIA

- Hyatt Centric MG Road Bangalore (India) is offering space for two local companies to showcase their products and pick up business trimmed by the pandemic. Elemental by Nanya, a female-owned maker of handcrafted, earth-friendly concrete décor, will display her items for sale to guests and locals near the hotel's 24/7 restaurant during brunches and events through May 2021, while Paul and Mike a farm-to-bar maker of chocolates, fine flavors and real floral distillates, has been offered complimentary banquet space for interactive exhibitions, tastings and product displays through June 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +91 80 4936 1234.
- Hyatt Regency Addis Ababa (Ethiopia) is supporting female-owned Alternative Addis, an "upcycling project" that looks to create new products out of waste material and by-products. This sustainable business was launched during COVID and Hyatt Regency Addis Ababa is the first hotel to participate by providing empty bottles that are recreated into new glass vessels. The hotel will also be providing complimentary space within the hotel's lobby market to sell their products to guests and locals. Beginning in April this ongoing collaboration will be available daily from 7AM-11PM. See b-roll HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +251 11 517 1234.
- Hyatt Regency Ahmedabad (India) is supporting the creativity of local women by providing pop-up outlets for two local female-led businesses to showcase their products. SEWA Kalakruti, led by Self-Employed Women's Association (SEWA) Cooperative Federation, is an organization aimed at teaching local, underprivileged women crafts and arts, while The Heritage Shop, run by a young female artist, is a curated art & lifestyle boutique whose mission is to pay tribute to India's First World Heritage City, Ahmedabad. Both businesses are receiving complimentary space in the property's lounge and cafe on alternate weeks during the hotel's Sunday brunches to showcase and sell handcrafted items and artworks to guests and locals. The hotel is also featuring artistic postcards from The Heritage Shop in its front office for sale to guests as souvenirs. The pop-up shops are debuting in June and will continue weekly through September. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +91 75 7482 6621.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

REIMAGINING HOTEL GIFT SHOPS

EUROPE, AFRICA AND SOUTHWEST ASIA

- Hyatt Regency Chandigarh (India) is also connecting guests with local female artisans through its collaborations with two local businesses that was greatly impacted by COVID-19. Female-owned Phulkari brand, Phulkaris of Punjab, whose local female artisans have been out of work due to the pandemic, is receiving complimentary space weekly during Sunday brunches to sell their hand-embroidered clothing and accessories through June; and the hotel is outfitting its entire team with masks (100,000 orders to date) made by female artisans supported by Insha-e-Noor - a local NGO who previously had to lay people off due to COVID. See images and b-roll HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +91 172 4401234.
- Hyatt Regency Chennai (India) has been collaborating with local, minimalist men's and women's fashion designer Vivek Karunakaran (VK) to create a special, socially distant shopping experience for guests and locals since September 2020. Due to a decline in business as result of the pandemic, VK's flagship store shuttered and the brand was forced to downsize its team by 75%. This collaboration aims to help the brand survive and thrive through these unprecedented times, while offering guests exclusive access to one of Chennai's top designers. The pop-up will be ongoing through 2021. See more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Hyatt Regency Dharamshala Resort (India) is doing its part for local tourism. After closing last summer, the hotel reopened in September and began indulging guests with departure gifts that help local businesses, including specially made tea bags from Anandini Himalaya Teas; handmade photo frames from Green Shop; and recommended pottery workshops from Dharamkot Studio as a unique guest experience. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +91 189 222 1234.
- Park Hyatt Zanzibar off the coast of East Africa is offering support to community women who lost their incomes or were unable to source resources due to the pandemic. Businesses include Wajamama, the first wellness center in Zanzibar dedicated to disease prevention and health promotion for women; Zivansh, an eco-friendly design store in Stone Town working to benefit the community and empower women; Barefoot College, supporting rural livelihoods of village women in Zanzibar; Sasik pillows, a women-run cooperative sewing pillows; Zalt, a Swahili-coast harvested salt business that supports local salt farmers, and more. Launched over Easter weekend 2021 and set to continue monthly after Ramadan, the collaboration offers use of the hotel's Beach House to showcase, market and sell products that guests can peruse during dinner. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +255 24 550 1234.

ASIA-PACIFIC

- Grand Hyatt Chengdu (China) is collaborating with fashion brand Lancy Group who had to temporarily close its store in the Chengdu Qun-guang shopping mall due to the pandemic. The hotel has stepped in to provide pop-up space in the lobby for Lancy Group to display their products and sell their products, as well as entice VIP guests with a special co-branded afternoon tea. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +86 28 6666 1234.
- Hyatt Regency Osaka (Japan) is collaborating with seven community collaborators that faced hardship due to COVID-19 by providing each with social space on its lobby level to offer complimentary experiences for guests. Experiences include a tea ceremony for children from Kids Sadou Osaka; Japanese sweets-making classes from Ohoido Honpo; aroma oil blending from female-owned Little Forest, calligraphy classes from female-owned Pure Gift, and more. Launched in August 2020, as part of the hotel's pandemic-related pivot toward leisure travelers, the complimentary experiences are offered Saturdays, Sundays and holidays through 2021, with collaborators paid a base fee to help during a difficult time. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +81 06 6612 1234.
- Hyatt Place Kathmandu (Nepal) is collaborating with a series of local businesses who were impacted by the pandemic, ranging from those whose supply chain was affected to those who relied on tourism, to provide complimentary space in the lobby for them to sell their products. Collaborators include Pataleban Vineyard Resort, the first organic winery and vineyard in Nepal; Nuwa Estates Coffee, a Nepali coffee brand that grows, roasts and sells the coffee beans for local and international distribution; No-Chini, translating to "without sugar," is Nepal's first cold pressed juice company; Thimi Ceramics, a minority-owned stoneware ceramics producer specializing in high end ceramicware for European clientele; and Nepal Knotcraft Craft Centre, a female-owned and operated manufacturer of macramé products, recycled-wood items and products made of natural fibers. Available to guests and locals beginning on July 2021. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +977 1 538 1234.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

NEW EXPERIENCES ON THE MENU

AMERICAS

- Andaz Mayakoba Resort Riviera Maya (Mexico) is also working with local Oaxacan culinary businesses and artisans as part of their From Mexico to Andaz series to provide these indigenous collaborators exposure to tourists again. The collaborations include a project between Executive Chef Miguel Gomez and Chef Olga Cabrera of Tierra del Sol to create a menu of Oaxacan specialties that debuted in March with one dish to be featured at the resort's signature restaurant Casa Amate, with proceeds going to a local charity. Other collaborations include Finca Arabia, a fourth-generation family-owned Oaxaca coffee brand; Pasión de Cacao, a producer of high-quality, preservative-free Mexican cacao and chocolate; and Mezcal Amarás, a socially conscious and environmentally responsible mescal brand from Oaxaca. The From Mexico to Andaz series, launched in March and will be ongoing through May before they kick off a second series focused on local collaborators from Central Mexico in June. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- The Driskill Hotel (Austin, Texas) has also tapped female-owned Tiny House Coffee to supply guests and locals visiting the property's 1886 Café and Bakery with freshly-brewed coffee daily. Also, for sale at 1886 are their "Driskill x Tiny House" retail bags. Having previously supplied cold brew kegs to offices, Tiny House Coffee was impacted by closures and capacity restrictions, resulting in a drop of revenue of 80% due to the pandemic. This collaboration with The Driskill has allowed the coffee house to get back on their feet, and includes promotion on social media. More details regarding the collaboration can be found by contacting +1 512 439 1234.
- Holston House Nashville (Tenn.), part of The Unbound Collection by Hyatt, is collaborating with High Garden Tea, a local retailer of heirloom herbal and tea craft supplies, to boost business that was previously trimmed by the pandemic. The collaboration will highlight High Garden Tea's products during the hotel's rooftop tea service, on the menu at TENN restaurant and for sale in the hotel's marketplace. The promotion was launched in April 2021 and is ongoing through 2021 and beyond. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 629 208 1621.
- Hotel De Anza (San Jose, Calif.), a Destination hotel, is collaborating to help NirvanaSoul Coffee compete in a busy local market. The female and Black-owned company, which opened in fall 2020, is the hotel's preferred coffee vendor in a very competitive market. The coffee service is set up at the front desk on Sundays from 7-10am, with hotel personnel pouring

AMERICAS

- NirvanaSoul's signature blend. Coffee is complimentary for weekend guests, with proceeds going directly to NirvanaSoul. Launched in April, the collaboration will run throughout 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 408 286 1000.
- Hyatt House Emeryville/San Francisco Bay Area tapped Original Pattern Brewing Company for a collaboration after the brewery was forced to temporarily limit services due strict COVID restrictions throughout the last year. The hotel is heightening awareness of the Oakland-based brewery as a local destination and purchasing more than $500 worth of Original Pattern Beer to sell to guest and locals in the hotel's market. They are also offering a Sip and Stay package that will include a variety four-pack of beer as well as tasting notes from the brewery on each beer. The collaboration launched in April and will continue through October 2021. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 510 601 5880.
- Hyatt Regency Atlanta is continuing its celebration of the city's rich food culture by inviting Anna Bell's Kitchen Mac & Cheese to create rich and creamy satisfaction within the hotel's kitchen space. Offered complimentary, the space enables minority-owned Anna Bell's to continue selling its coveted homemade mac & cheese to locals and guests while it expands to ship products nationally. The business previously prepared its food in commercial kitchens and sold products at farmers markets before the pandemic suspended such operations. This collaboration is ongoing through at least September 2021 and possibly longer depending on business conditions. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 404 577 1234.
- Hyatt Regency Baltimore is extending its collaboration with Dessert Fantasies, the Black and female-owned local bakery whose team has been baking up sweet confections for pick-up and delivery out of Hyatt Regency Baltimore's kitchen since April 2020. The business was significantly affected by the pandemic and was in the process of closing down their brick-and-mortar before the hotel stepped in to help. Not only is the hotel continuing this collaboration, but has also extended kitchen space at no cost to the following minority and female-run businesses: BoCa Flavor, an all-natural Caribbean seasoning; Cakes by the Pound, a bakery serving luxurious pound cake and other scratch-made desserts; and Elludes, a Belizean-style pepper sauce bottler. All collaborations will continue through the remainder of 2021. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 410 528 1234.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

NEW EXPERIENCES ON THE MENU

AMERICAS

- Hotel Revival Baltimore, a JDV by Hyatt hotel, is continuing their commitment to supporting local, black-owned businesses through a variety of food & beverage collaborations. As part of their Pop Up & Pick Up series ongoing since Fall 2020, Hotel Revival provides local restaurants and purveyors who have lost their brick-and-mortar spaces (due to the pandemic) with complimentary kitchen space and resources to operate their businesses. Since mid-November, the property has provided their kitchen facilities to Maryland's first female- and black-owned oyster bar, The Urban Oyster, as a way for the restaurant to continue facilitating curbside and carryout options, Thursday-Sunday for lunch and dinner from the hotel. Additionally, Hotel Revival has recently launched Dashery, a new café on the hotel's first floor in collaboration with three local small businesses including Wight Tea Company for tea; black-owned and family-run bakery Crust by Mack for sweet and savory treats; black-owned Black Acres Roastery for artisanal coffee, who the hotel announced just last week will also be providing in-room coffee experiences for hotel guests. See images of 'Dashery HERE and additional information on the collaborations HERE.
- Hyatt Regency Cincinnati continues to showcase Holtman's Donuts, a local hero pushing out delicious, made-from-scratch donuts for more than 60 years. Since early COVID-19, the hotel has been working with Holtman's to bring joy to guests during weekend stays and in turn provide exposure for the small business as foot traffic and tourism have decreased downtown. The hotel will continue to place fresh donuts within the lobby on a first come, first serve basis. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 513 579 1234.
- Hyatt Regency Tulsa Downtown (Okla.) is collaborating with the McNellie's Restaurant Group, owner and operator of 11 concept restaurants in Oklahoma and Arkansas, that reopened at reduced capacity due to the pandemic. The hotel is providing a 2-night package and $25 gift card for use at McNellie's downtown restaurants, as well as providing paid marketing. The collaboration has thus far resulted in nearly $100,000 in package sales, plus $10,000 to McNellie's from gift cards as well as extras that guests spend on top. The collaboration will continue until May 31, 2021 with potential for an extension. See b-roll HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 918 234 1234.
- Hyatt Place Emeryville/San Francisco Bay Area is offering guests exclusive discounts at local watering hole Honor Bar, which promotes honesty, fairness and integrity. The bar transitioned to offer outdoor seating and dining per local pandemic standards, though business has been slower than usual. The promotion gives guests a percentage off and will run through 2021. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 510 285 9243.

AMERICAS

- Hyatt Place Eugene / Oakway Center (Ore.) is pleased to offer complimentary space in its lobby, bar, and 5th floor Sky Deck, for Iris Vineyards, a female-owned winery that produces world class, award-winning Willamette Valley wines, to host pop up tasting events starting in June while their tasting room is closed. The size and location of the owner's homemade operating during COVID-19 not feasible, so the hotel stepped in to offer its space allowing the vineyard to keep a revenue stream. The hotel is now offering a package where guests can enjoy overnight accommodations, a bottle of Iris Vineyard wine upon arrival, an exclusive private tasting and tour of the vineyard (which remains unavailable to the general public), and souvenir wine glasses to be kept following the tasting. The package is available to book Thursday-Sunday night with one week's notice. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Hyatt Place Fremont / Silicon Valley (Calif.) is supporting Mazzeah Grill, a local minority-owned purveyor of fresh and healthy Persian food as their food truck business was impacted during the pandemic due to a decline in social gatherings. The ongoing collaboration, which kicked off on April 1, offers Mazzeah Grill onsite space to park its food trucks for guests and locals to access unique, mouthwatering dishes. See more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Hyatt Place Nashville Airport (Tenn.) is helping Redneck Riviera, a honkytonk located in the heart of Music City owned by John Rich of the country music duo Big & Rich. Nashville has suffered from more than the pandemic of late, including a devastating tornado in March 2020 and a Christmas Day bombing. The hotel has teamed up to drive business to Redneck Riviera, including offering complimentary beverage coupons with guests and rewarding valuable leads from the honkytonk, such as one that booked 30 rooms and was repaid in kind by sending a group to the venue. The hotel offers a $100 VISA gift card for each group referred, booked and consumed. The collaboration started in October 2020 and is ongoing through 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 615 493 5200.
- Hyatt Place Orlando Airport (Fla.) is collaborating with family-owned and operated High Tide Harry's Seafood Restaurant. The local seafood haunt has suffered more than $100K in losses throughout the pandemic which has forced owner Harry to stop taking a salary for the last 12 months in order to keep his managers and employees on the payroll. The hotel's support includes a complimentary daily shuttle service to-and-from the nearby restaurant, a standup display in the lobby, as well as discounts on drinks and menu offerings. The promotion started in early April 2021 and is ongoing through 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 407 816 7800.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

NEW EXPERIENCES ON THE MENU

AMERICAS

- Hyatt Place Riverhead Long Island/East End (New York) is amplifying its ongoing support of the Riverhead Business Improvement District, a 501(c)(4) social welfare organization in a federally designated low-income 'opportunity-zone', to connect guests to regional activities in the downtown Riverhead area. The BID has pioneered campaigns to support local businesses during COVID-19 from fundraisers for hospital employees to offering grants to food and beverage establishments. Most recently they are collaborating with the hotel on a Riverhead Ale Trail craft beer and distillery tour with the property acting as the trailhead. Participating guests or locals will be given an illustrated map to guide them along a trail of various establishments, from Montauk Distilling Company to Long Ireland Beer Company, to imbibe while supporting the community. Beginning in May, the Riverhead Ale Trail experience will be available through October. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 631 208 0002.
- Hyatt Place Warwick Providence Airport (R.I.) has been working with a nearby American restaurant, Iron Works, since September 2020 to boost business slowed by COVID regulations. Through the collaboration, guests of the hotel are offered a 20% discount on dine-in and takeout orders from the restaurant, which is located just two blocks away. In addition to driving direct business to Iron Works, the collaboration provides guests with a valuable discount to dine. The offering will be available through October 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 401 738 8700.
- Motif Seattle, a Destination by Hyatt hotel, is serving up a new collaboration with Mixtape Pasta, a local, female-owned fresh pasta company that works with local farms and seasonal ingredients to fashion flavors that spark culinary creativity in the kitchen and on the plate. A veteran of the natural wine world, owner Megan Barone was furloughed due to the pandemic, and quickly tapped her roots as a chef to start making pasta for friends and essential workers before launching her pasta business in May 2020. The hotel is now offering complimentary space to Mixtape Pasta, and collaborating with the company on monthly pop-up dinners paired with music at Frolik Kitchen + Cocktails, priced at $100 and available on select Sunday evenings from May to August 2021. Weekly pasta pickups and merch are available for purchase in the lobby, and Mixtape Pasta dishes are featured on the restaurant menu. See images and b-roll HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

AMERICAS

- Thompson Washington D.C. has teamed up with a local minority-owned restaurant, Chloe, to provide delicious, seasonal in-room dining options for the property's room service menu. The collaboration began when Maialino Mare and Anchovy Social (food & beverage outlets on property) were temporarily closed due to the pandemic. Helmed by Chef Haidar Karoum, whose business was impacted by indoor dining capacity restrictions in the D.C. area, Chloe celebrates Chef Karoum's Lebanese roots and extensive travel around Western Europe and Southeast Asia, and is grounded in the seasonal bounties of the Mid-Atlantic. The mutually beneficial collaboration began in November and will continue through June 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 855 949 1949.

EUROPE, MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTHWEST ASIA

- Grand Hyatt Al Khobar Hotel & Residences (Saudi Arabia) is collaborating with Koshary a small, home-based catering business run by Muneera Al Araf, a local woman known for her delicious, traditional Saudi cooking. Muneera was forced to shut down Koshary during the pandemic when most of her clients stopped operating. To help kickstart her business again, the hotel has committed to hiring Koshary once weekly for extra kitchen support for special events through May. See more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Hyatt Raipur (India) is collaborating with T-Tales, the country's first sustainably led tea maker, to launch an onsite Bio-Café to make up for T-Tales' loss of manufacturing capabilities that occurred during labor shortages in the pandemic. Set to launch in June 2021, the Bio-Café will feature organic products that speak to climate, social, and organically sustainable practices in line with Hyatt's vision of advancing care for communities. See more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Hyatt Regency Chantilly (France) is collaborating with the twin brother brewers of Brasserie Félicité, whose beer is inspired by the history of nearby Sainte Félicité and their family farm. Taken with the brothers' entrepreneurial spirit and sense of partnership, the hotel is offering Brasserie Félicité by draft or bottle in all of its food and beverage outlets. The beers' popularity at the hotel has resulted in increased production and the brewery's ability to hire two new employees. The collaboration started with the hotel's debut in 2019, and will continue with the hotel's reopening in April 2021. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +33 3 65 36 12 34.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

NEW EXPERIENCES ON THE MENU

EUROPE, MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTHWEST ASIA

- Hyatt Regency Mumbai (India) is collaborating with the citizen-action committee Rewilding Aary that supports ecological sustainability and the indigenous tribes in the Aarey-Sanjay Gandhi National Park Forest. The tribes, who generate income selling farm-grown produce were severely impacted by the pandemic lockdowns. The hotel will support their needs with farm-to-table brunches serving indigenous recipes while offering space in Glasshouse restaurant for the Adivasis (tribe) to set up a farmers' market with fresh produce available for purchase by guests. The "Farm-to-Table" brunches will be held on Sundays at 12:30-3:30pm throughout June and July. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +91 22 6696 1234.
- Hyatt Regency Paris Étoile (France) is supporting female-owned Parisian homemade cake baker Le Bar A Cake, which lost much of its business when hotels were forced to close during the pandemic. The bakery's products are now featured at breakfast and the hotel's MAYO market, with signage detailing it's the story behind the bakery. A melt-in-one's-mouth slice of Le Bar A Cake goes for ~$5 and the collaboration will be ongoing through 2021. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +33 (0) 1 40 68 12 34.
- Hyatt Paris Madeleine (France) is looking to serve its guest sweet treats while supporting local business, Maison Boissier, a historic and near-century-old confectioner and chocolatier. The house was a favorite of Victor Hugo, Emily Zola and Alexandre Dumas to name a few and is now available at Hyatt Paris Madeleine as tourism is low and affecting daily business. The collaboration, available through 2021, offers guests a true French gastronomic experience highlighting the art of living à la française. See more details regarding the collaboration by contacting +33 1 5527 1234.

ASIA-PACIFIC

- Hyatt Regency Sydney is collaborating with two local beverage outfits – coffee roaster Single O and rum distillery Brix Distillers – both of which saw dramatic drops in sales and customer demand due to COVID-19. The hotel is offering Single O's thoughtfully produced coffee, which sells for $4 at the property's Jackalberry Bar, as well as Brix's rums, including a customized Tailored Vanilla Infused Golden Rum, which sells for $17 at the property's Jackalberry Bar and Zephyr rooftop bar. This ongoing commitment to serving these products will be ongoing through 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

SUPPORT FOR STUDENTS & YOUTH

AMERICAS

- Andaz Savannah (Ga.) is continuing to support the local chapter of the Girl Scouts of Historic Georgia by offering hard-to-find meeting space that satisfies the group's social distancing requirements for weekly troop meetings. Through the collaboration, which has been ongoing since December 2020 through 2021, the property is working to secure presentations from on-property professionals including the Chef, to assist troops in earning badges. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 912 233 2116.
- Manchester Grand Hyatt San Diego is continuing its collaboration with The New Children's Museum of San Diego, which is set for a phased re-opening in early May 2021. Meanwhile, the hotel continues to provide children with educational, interactive museum activities to enjoy without leaving the hotel, including preassembled, individually packaged "Think, Play, Grow" arts & crafts kits to continue their mission of stimulating imagination, creativity and critical thinking through inventive and engaging experiences with contemporary art. The kits are available at the hotel's market or front desk for $9.99, with proceeds going directly to The New Children's Museum. The collaboration has raised hundreds of dollars for the museum, and will continue through 2021. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 619 232 1234.
- Hyatt Regency Toronto (Canada) is showcasing the art work of the 2020 graduating class of Ontario College of Art & Design in light of the cancellation of the school's traditional weeklong exhibition due to the pandemic an event which typically attracts more than 40,000 visitors, the work of student artists was creatively placed in the hotel's windows and on easels in the lobby to maximize exposure. The showcase was available for view through end of April, and the property will continue the collaboration by showcasing the work of the 2021 graduating class, beginning in late May. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Hyatt Place UC Davis (Calif.) is excited to welcome staff, students, and faculty back to the University of California, Davis campus after the pandemic forced a year of remote learning, cancelled events and virtual conferences. As part of this collaboration which began on April 1, anyone associated with UC Davis has access to complimentary meeting space, free parking and breakfast within a clean and friendly environment. Available through December 31, 2021, group rates begin $119. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +1 530 297 3184.

EUROPE AND AFRICA

- Hyatt Regency Cape Town (South Africa) is arranging to provide 50 healthy bagged lunches twice a week to students of Schotche Kloof Primary School and St. Paul's Primary School, who otherwise might go to school hungry. The collaboration is intended to lessen the economic burden on parents that have lost their incomes and been struggling to feed their families because of the pandemic. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +27 87 109 1234.
- Hyatt Place Amsterdam Airport (the Netherlands) is providing complimentary event space and leading workshops for students of ROC MBO College Poort, which had to turn to online learning when it was unable to provide social distancing during the pandemic. Hotel staff are leading workshops for students interested in particular hotel industry segments, supporting the local college and its students to reach their goals by the end of the year. The first of two workshops were scheduled in April 2021, and the second is in June See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

ASIA-PACIFIC

- Park Hyatt Siem Reap (Cambodia) is collaborating with Life and Hope Association, a charitable initiative run by Buddhist monks at Wat Damnak, to offer new opportunities to young women and girls from surrounding villages. A Hyatt Community Grant Award has been employed to reopen a vocational training program through the LHA Sewing School following its temporary suspension due to COVID-19, with funding covering all operating expenses as the new term began on March 1, 2021, including provision of food and accommodation for students, some of whom will have opportunity to intern in the hotel's Housekeeping Department. Guests can add $1 per night to their hotel bill as a charitable donation with all proceeds going directly to the school. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Park Hyatt Siem Reap (Cambodia) is also collaborating with the rural Cambodian village of Preah Dak to offer guests two unique culinary tours. Led by a family of Khmer villagers who have been producing handmade rice noodles and sugar palm for five generations, guests can book the Taste of Cambodia Tour or Sugar Palm Journey starting at $89 per person, with $20/ experience going directly back to the villagers. See b-roll HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

Hyatt Loves Local 2021 Fact Sheet Participating Hotels and Collaborations

All photos hyperlinked within are credited to their respective hotels, unless otherwise noted within. All prices are in USD.

HOTELS THAT GUIDE

AMERICAS

- The Driskill Hotel (Austin, Texas) is collaborating with family-owned Ghost City Tours to offer nightly, ghost-hunting walking tours that include a stop at the notoriously haunted hotel. In addition, The Driskill is now offering a corresponding Ghost City Package which includes two tickets to experience the tour. After being shut down completely for about four months in 2020, Ghost City Tours resumed operations with smaller groups and socially distancing, but have luckily seen business pick back up as walking tours are a very low risk activity for travelers and locals alike. Beginning May 20th and available through 2021, tours are open to the public and are offered 7 nights a week with groups of 12+ receiving a 15% discount. See HERE to book by selecting Special Offer Code and entering GHSTTR.

EUROPE

- Párisi Udvar Hotel Budapest (Hungary), part of The Unbound Collection by Hyatt, is supporting Imagine Budapest, a thematic sightseeing tour company that lost business when it was unable to organize walking tours to hidden treasures of the city due to pandemic restrictions. Imagine Budapest will lead exclusive historical tours of the iconic architectural hotel building for locals and guests, with discounts on items at the Párisi Passage Brasserie at tour's end. The long-term collaboration between the hotel and the tour company, will re-launch when pandemic restrictions are lifted and costs $15 per person. See more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

ASIA-PACIFIC

EUROPE

- Hôtel Martinez (Cannes, France), part of The Unbound Collection by Hyatt is quenching guests' thirst for biodynamic wine with Vins Des Moines De L'Abbaye de Lerins, produced locally by the monks of the Lérins Islands. The hotel is offering the wines as guest amenities. Guests can also as well as book a private guided tour of the island vineyards, which includes lunch and a tasting of wines and Mediterranean specialties. This is bookable through the hotel concierge with participation fees donated back to the monks. The promotion will also help drive awareness for the hotel's reopening in May 2021. More details regarding the collaboration by contacting +33 (0) 4 93 90 12 34.
- Park Hyatt Zurich (Switzerland) continues its social media campaign in support of historic Swiss brands affected by the pandemic. Launched in 2020, the campaign ran a series of videos featuring inspiring stories from brands told around the unified theme "tradition meets innovation," using the hashtags #StrongTogether and #TogetherforZurich. Now back for 2021, the campaign has been updated with new insights and videos about five hidden gems in Zurich, all of which had to close for several months during the pandemic, including fabric designer Jakob Schlaepfer, luxury watchmaker IWC Schaffhausen, and leather craftsman Peter Nitz. The videos will be released in May and June 2021. Guests can explore these brands at the nearby Bahnhofstrasse shopping mile through the property's "Best Kept Secrets of Zurich" package which includes selection of unique shopping visits with private viewings upon request. See more details regarding the collaboration HERE.

- Andaz Tokyo Toranomon Hills (Japan) is collaborating with historic local shops that have experienced a dramatic decrease in business due to less tourism, as well as pandemic work-at-home initiatives. As part of a new Daily Staycation Activities Program, the hotel's knowledgeable concierge is offering neighborhood tours with stops at local shops that have long histories in Toranomon to meet the staff, sample their products and engage with the local community. These collaborators include homemade, seasonal ice cream shop Sowa, one of the oldest coffee shops in Tokyo, Matsuya Coffee, the traditional Edo-era rice cracker shop Kiya and traditional monaka, dorayaki and red bean sweets shop, Shinshodoh. These tours are available complimentary to guests Monday to Thursday each week, and will continue through 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.
- Hyatt Centric Ginza Tokyo (Japan) is teaming up with the Ginza Monotsunagi Project, a project started by one local Japanese confectionery to rally together local businesses struggling as a result of the pandemic to revitalize the Ginza business community. Launched in May 2020 with more than 100 participating local business, Hyatt Centric Ginza is participating by offering complimentary Monotsunagi Project cards exclusively to hotel guests. The cards include a map with discounts and offers at participating businesses, encouraging foot traffic and driving sales in an effort to save renowned century-old family businesses in the area. This collaboration will be available through November 2021. See images HERE, and more details regarding the collaboration HERE.