

HISTORY OF ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON

Robert Louis Stevenson was born on November 13, 1850 in Edinburgh, Scotland to Thomas Stevenson and Margaret Isabella Balfour. He was a Scottish novelist and travel writer, most noted for writing Treasure Island, Kidnapped, Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde and A Child's Garden of Verses. In 1888, he and his American wife decided to leave the U.S West Coast on a sea cruise.

Stevenson suffered from bronchitis and recurring bouts of tuberculosis and was in desperate need of fresh salt air and a clean tropical climate to aid his health. During his travels, he made several extended stops in Hawai'i. As soon as he landed in Hawai'i he became very close with King Kālākaua. He also had a very close relationship with Kālākaua's niece, Princess Ka'iulani who was part Scottish. Just before Ka'iulani left for boarding school in England, he wrote her a poem to reassure her that there was nothing to worry about.

This is the poem:

The Island Rose

Forth from her land to mine she goes,
The island maid, the island rose,
Light of heart and bright of face:
The daughter of a double race.
Her islands here, in Southern sun,
Shall mourn their Ka'iulani gone,
And I, in her dear banyan shade,
Look vainly for my little maid.
But our Scots islands far away
Shall glitter with unwonted day,
And cast for once their tempests by
To smile in Ka'iulani's eye.
