PEPPER

Black pepper is a flowering vine in the family Piperaceae, cultivated for its fruit, which is usually dried and used as a spice and seasoning.

CINNAMON

Cinnamon is a spice obtained from the inner bark of several trees from the Cinnamon species that is used in both sweet and savoury foods.

MAMA NTLIE

Her own journey has been a cauldron of love and dedication. One most important factor is about the powerful role of women in society and dedication towards their responsibilities. All the ingredients used are natural and authentic. The recipes are nutritionally balanced. In short it is a bunch of beautifully crafted recipes that gives an insight into the Zanzibar home kitchen. It is remarkable but with a rare mix of loving attention and a deep sense of culinary art of a Zanzibari woman.

ZAMANI RESIDENCE A LA CARTE

FISHERMAN SALEH

Our fisherman Saleh offer freshly caught Indian ocean seafood right off the dhow and deliver his fresh catch to the seafood counter even before their fishing lines have had the time to dry. We feature the pristine selection of seafood and as our fisherman says "having lived in Zanzibar all my life I both cherish and want to see it protected and sustained for future generations".

NUTMEG

Nutmeg is derived from several species of tree in the genus Myristica.

It is known to have been a prized and costly spice in European medieval cuisine as a flavouring, medicinal, and preservative agent.

CUMIN

Cumin is a flowering plant native from the East Mediterranean to India. Its seeds are used in the cuisine of many different cultures in both whole and ground form.
