SPICE TRADING

Traders from Arabia, Persian Gulf and west India came to Zanzibar and saw what Zanzibar has to give for trading. So, they started to settle on Zanzibar and trade the nice and fine spices from this beautiful island.

To show with what the traders back in the years traded we want you to taste our...

OMAN INFLUENCE

In 1698, Zanzibar became part of Oman. The Oman moved their capital from Muscat to Stone Town in 1840. The Sultan developed the clove plantations. The Sultan made Zanzibar famous for its spices.

We showcase this influence in the cocktail ...

GREAT BRITAIN INFLUENCE

1890 the British ruled in Zanzibar and Pemba, not as a colony only as a protector. After the shortest war in history, 45 minutes, Hamoud was declared as the new ruler and peace was restored. He banned the slave trading and freeing slaves.

To show this time of Zanzibar we created our ...
