THE STORY

In 1884 Hotelier John Lennon built the stylish Lennons Hotel, a 3-storey building on George Street. This hotel was knocked down in 1941 to raise the new and more substantial Lennons Hotel. In 1972 the building was yet again knocked down while the new site was being prepared, this site you join us on today, Queen Street; at the time was the tallest building in the city. The Lennons Hotel brand was a true icon in Queensland.

For 129 years the Lennons Hotel was "the Waldorf Astoria of NYC, or the Savoy of London for Brisbane". In 1995 this hotel site became known as the Lennons Country Comfort Hotel and then Chifley at Lennons in 2003.

Lennons Hotel was "the" place for VIPs, with iconic global VIP's regularly in house. Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith, Australian Operatic Soprano, Dame Nellie Melba, Prime Minister, Sir Robert Menzies, President Lyndon Johnson, US General Douglas MacArthur, telephone inventor, Alexander Graham Bell and The Beatles.

Many locals enjoy sharing their Lennons stories and is now our pleasure to continue to celebrate this treasured brand for a new era with Lennons Restaurant & Bar.

Today we realise and honour the importance of this brand and its name in Queensland, and offer to you this new classic bistro menu, celebrating fresh produce and an exceptional range of beverages.
