

A Consent Form for Staying and Lodging in a Dog-Friendly Room

This document indicates that, in staying in a Dog-Friendly Room, you have understood the following cautions, and have agreed to comply with them.

Requirements for staying in a Dog-Friendly Room

1. Only dogs are allowed to accompany you to the facilities; you are not to bring in any other pets.
2. The dog must have undergone minimum training so as not to cause problems or inconveniences to the other guests. The dog does not bark needlessly, jump at other people, or damage items and equipment inside the facility.
3. Up to three dogs are allowed to accompany a guest per room. (Up to two dogs weighing 10 kg or more; only one dog weighing 30 kg or more.)
4. Please note that some breeds of dogs are not allowed to stay because of accommodating facility and mutual safety reasons. (See the list below.)

[Dogs that may not stay at our hotel]

Bouvier des Flandres	Rhodesian Ridgeback	Rottweiler
American Pit Bull Terrier	Grand Bleu de Gascogne	Tosa Inu
Neapolitan Mastiff	Billy	Bull Ard
Bull Terrier	Bull Mastiff	Bergamasco Sheepdog
Beauceron	Bordeaux Mastiff	Mastiff
French Mastiff	Chow Chow	Miniature Bull Terrier

Please also note that, even if a dog is of a breed not featured in the above list, the hotel may decide not to allow it to stay overnight or remain inside the facilities if it carries the risk of causing problems for our other guests, or doing harm to them.

5. The dog has been immunized against rabies and viral contagious diseases (a mixed vaccine of 5 or more types of diseases) more than 2 weeks and less than 1 year prior to the planned stay at our hotel.
6. Submit, at the time of making reservations, a photocopy of a written certificate of immunization for viral contagious diseases, which proves that the dog has been immunized more than 2 weeks but less than 1 year ago.
7. The dog has is more than 4 months old.
8. No rental dogs are allowed in the Dog-Friendly Room.
9. The dog has undergone measures to eliminate fleas and ticks.
10. Please note that female dogs are prohibited from staying overnight at our hotel during the period of heat (4 weeks after the start of the menstrual cycle) and/or pregnancy. Please also note that the dog may be asked to refrain from staying at our hotel if it carries the risk of causing tremendous inconvenience to other dogs.

Cautions for using the Dog-Friendly Room

1. Do not use the bathroom in the guest room for shampooing or washing the dog.
2. Do not let the dog sleep in the hotel bedding.
3. When returning to the room from the outdoors, such as from a walk, the dog should have its feet cleaned in the designated area set up inside the room.

4. Make sure to lock up your dog in the indoor dog cage when you go out of the room for meals, etc., leaving only the dog inside the guest room, and when you go to sleep.
5. Do not leave your dog in the guest room while the room is being cleaned by the housekeeping staff.
6. Make absolutely sure to prevent your dog from damaging the building, furniture, fixtures, equipment, plants and other items. If your dog breaks or damages any of these items, you must cover the damage cost yourself.
7. Please refrain from trimming or brushing your dog's hair in areas other than the indoor feet washing area. Any fallen hair or other items that resulted from such acts must be cleaned up afterwards.
8. If your dog excretes in areas other than the indoor toilet, clean up the site promptly in a hygienic fashion. If your dog excretes in areas that are for common use by the hotel guests, make sure to notify the hotel staff nearest you.
9. If you go out with your dog, pay thorough attention to cars and other traffic around the hotel. Make sure to leash your dog so as not to inconvenience other guests or people nearby. You are responsible for scooping up the feces, bringing it back to the hotel, and disposing of it in the waste sink set up inside the hotel.
10. Please refrain from bringing your dog to hotel facilities other than the floor where the Dog-Friendly Rooms are set up, such as the lobby, other guest room floors, restaurants, spa, etc.
11. If your dog suddenly becomes ill, we will refer you to a veterinary hospital. If you have any other questions or anything you wish to discuss, please feel free to contact the hotel staff.
12. Bring items that your dog uses all the time and is familiar with, such as dog food, hair brush, and bedding for dog.

Please note that we may refuse to allow you and your dog to lodge at our hotel if the entries made in the application form contained false information, or if you and your accompanying dog violated these regulations while staying at our hotel and caused tremendous inconvenience and/or danger to our other guests, or accidents.

We will do our best to accommodate the dog(s) you bring along to our hotel. However, we shall not be held responsible whatsoever for any injuries, flights, fatal accidents, etc., that occur due to reasons beyond our control. Likewise, we shall assume no responsibility for any conflicts or problems attributable to your dog that may occur between you and other hotel guests, or between your dog and the other dogs staying at our hotel.
