KITCHEN AT NINETY FIVE

MENU

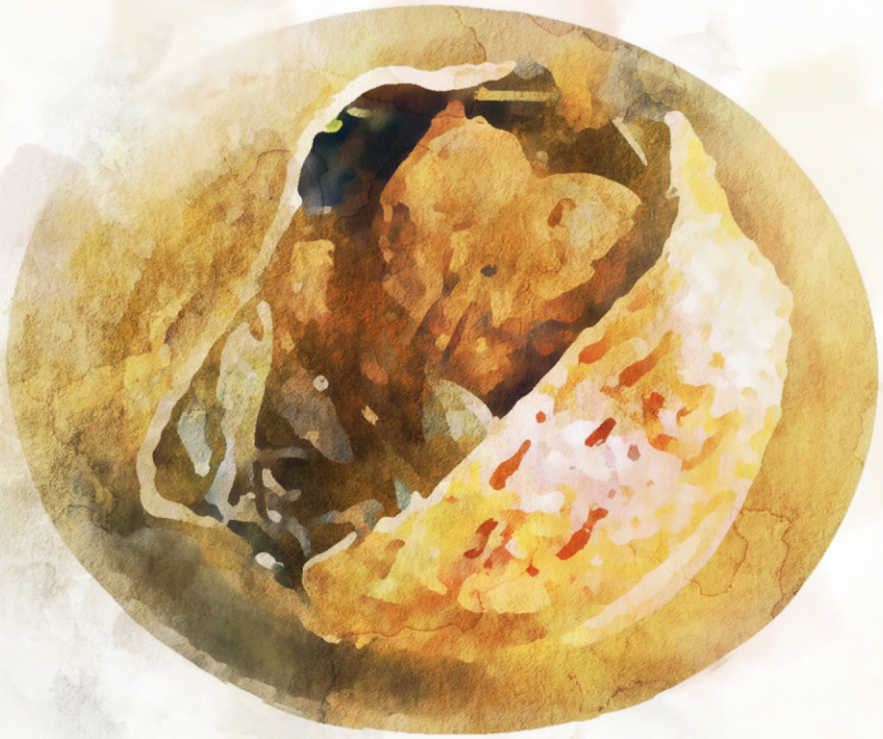

Hyatt Regency Ludhiana welcomes you to the city of History!

Hyatt Regency Ludhiana narrates the bespoke history of the most prominent and surviving landmark from the pre-independence era - The Clock Tower.

Established in 1906, Victoria Memorial Clock Tower is city's most prominent landmark, fondly called Ghanta Ghar, has looked over the city's shoulder for over a century now.

"The bell of Clock Tower was functional in 1948 and used to ring after every hour. It is over 100 years old and is one of landmarks of the city which becomes emblem of Ludhiana. The tower was designed by chief engineer of Amritsar, John Gordon. It is completely designed in the traditional European Gothic style and constructed with red bricks. It stands tall amongst the industrial city and is 8.5 kms from our very own hotel- Hyatt Regency Ludhiana.

Atta Chicken

Atta Chicken is one of the oldest functional culinary discovery that was developed and mastered by the farmers of Kotkapura, Punjab.

Atta Chicken at Kitchen At Ninety Five is a fine amalgam of traditional revisitation and our take on suitability to local palate.
