
DUNDEE ARMS

EST. 1860

OUR STORY

One of Sydney's oldest surviving pubs, the Dundee Arms has long been a gathering place for sailors and Sydney siders alike. Since its opening in 1860 Dundee Arms has been a prominent part of the overwhelmingly industrial maritime suburb, Darling Harbour. Throughout the 1860s and 70s Dundee Arms was a thriving hub for sailors who docked in the harbour and the city's working class. Today Dundee Arms is a piece of history, an icon of Sussex Street.
