

Accessible Customer Service Policy

Intent

This policy is intended to improve the provision of goods and services to the public or other third parties, not to the goods themselves.

All goods and services provided by Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel shall follow the principles of dignity, independence, integration and equal opportunity.

Scope

- a) This policy applies to the provision of goods and services at premises owned and operated by Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel.
- b) This policy applies to employees, volunteers, agents and/or contractors who deal with the public or other third parties that act on behalf of Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel, including when the provision of goods and services occurs off the premises of Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel such as in: delivery services, call centers, vendors, drivers, catering and third party marketing agencies.
- c) The section of this policy that addresses the use of guide dogs, service animals and service dogs only applies to the provision of goods and services that take place at premises owned and operated by Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel.
- d) This policy shall also apply to all persons who participate in the development of the Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel's policies, practices and procedures governing the provision of goods and services to members of the public or third parties.

Personal assistive devices are typically devices that customers bring with them such as a wheelchair, walker or a personal oxygen tank that might assist in hearing, seeing, communicating, moving, breathing, remembering and/or reading.

Disability – the term disability refers to:

- any degree of physical disability, infirmity, malformation or disfigurement that is caused by bodily injury, birth defect or illness and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes diabetes mellitus, epilepsy, a brain injury, any degree of paralysis, amputation, lack of physical co-ordination, blindness or visual impediment, deafness or hearing impediment, muteness or speech impediment, or physical reliance on a guide dog or other animal or on a wheelchair or other remedial appliance or device;
- a condition of mental impairment or a developmental disability;

- a learning disability, or dysfunction in one or more of the processes involved in understanding or using symbols or spoken language;
- a mental disorder; or
- an injury or disability for which benefits were claimed or received under the insurance plan established under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act, 1997.

Guide Dog – is a highly-trained working dog that has been trained at to provide mobility, safety and increased independence for people who are blind.

Service Animal – is a service animal for a person with a disability if:

- it is readily apparent that the animal is used by the person for reasons relating to his or her disability; or
- if the person provides a letter from a physician or nurse confirming that the person requires the animal for reasons relating to the disability.

Service Dog – a dog other than a guide dog for the blind is a service dog if:

- it is readily apparent to an average person that the dog functions as a service dog for a person with a medical disability;
- or the person who requires the dog can provide on request a letter from a physician or nurse confirming that the person requires a service dog.

Support Person – a support person means, in relation to a person with a disability, another person who accompanies him or her in order to help with communication, mobility, personal care, medical needs or access to goods and services.

General Principles

This policy addresses the following:

- A. The Provision of Goods and Services to Persons with Disabilities;
- B. The Use of Assistive Devices
- C. The Use of Guide Dogs, Service Animals and Service Dogs
- D. The Use of Support Persons
- E. Notice of Service Disruptions
- F. Customer Feedback
- G. Training
- H. Notice of Availability and Format of Required Documents

A. The Provision of Goods and Services to Persons with Disabilities

Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel will make every reasonable effort to ensure that its policies, practices and procedures are consistent with the principles of dignity, independence, integration and equal opportunity by:

- ensuring that all customers receive the same value and quality;
- allowing customers with disabilities to do things in their own ways, at their own pace when accessing goods and services as long as this does not present a safety risk;
- using alternative methods when possible to ensure that customers with disabilities have access to the same services, in the same place and in a similar manner;
- taking into account individual needs when providing goods and services; and
- communicating in a manner that takes into account the customer's disability.

B. Assistive Devices

Customer's own assistive device(s):

Persons with disabilities may use their own assistive devices as required when accessing goods or services provided by Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel.

In cases where the assistive device presents a safety concern or where accessibility might be an issue, other reasonable measures will be used to ensure the access of goods and services. For example, open flames and oxygen tanks cannot be near one another. Therefore, the accommodation of a customer with an oxygen tank may involve ensuring the customer is in a location that would be considered safe for both the customer and business. Or, where elevators are not present and where an individual requires assistive devices for the purposes of mobility, service will be provided in a location that meets the needs of the customer.

Assistive devices provided by Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel:

The following assistive devices are available on a first come, first serve basis and upon request, to assist customers in accessing our goods and services:

- FM Systems
- Pocket Talkers
- Raised Seating Platforms
- Walkers
- Walking Canes
- Wheelchairs

C. Guide Dogs, Service Animals and Service Dogs

A customer with a disability that is accompanied by guide dog, service animal or service dog will be allowed access to premises that are open to the public unless otherwise excluded by law. "No pet" policies do not apply to guide dogs, service animals and/or service dogs.

Food Service Areas:

A customer with a disability that is accompanied by guide dog or service dog will be allowed access to food service areas that are open to the public unless otherwise excluded by law.

Exclusion Guidelines:

If a guide dog, service animal or service dog is excluded by Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel will offer alternative methods to enable the person with a disability to access goods and services, when possible (for example, securing the animal in a safe location and offering the guidance of an employee).

Recognizing a Guide Dog, Service Dog and/or Service Animal:

If it is not readily apparent that the animal is being used by the customer for reasons relating to his or her disability, Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel may request verification from the customer. Verification may include:

- a letter from a physician or nurse confirming that the person requires the animal for reasons related to the disability;
- a valid identification card signed by the Attorney General of Canada; or,
- a certificate of training from a recognized guide dog or service animal training school.

Care and Control of the Animal:

The customer that is accompanied by a guide dog, service dog and/or service animal is responsible for maintaining care and control of the animal at all time.

Allergies:

If a health and safety concern presents itself for example in the form of a severe allergy to the animal, Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel will make all reasonable efforts to meet the needs of all individuals.

D. Support Persons

If a customer with a disability is accompanied by a support person, Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel will ensure that both persons are allowed to enter the premises together and that the customer is not prevented from having access to the support person.

There may be times where seating and availability prevent the customer and support person from sitting beside each other. In these situations Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel will make every reasonable attempt to resolve the issue.

In situations where confidential information might be discussed, consent will be obtained from the customer, prior to any conversation where confidential information might be discussed.

Admission Fees:

If payment is required by a support person for admission to the premises Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel will ensure that notice is given in advance by posting notice of admission fees for support persons where Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel fees are posted.

E. Notice of Disruptions in Service

Service disruptions may occur due to reasons that may or may not be within the control or knowledge of Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel. In the event of any temporary disruptions to facilities or services that customer's with disabilities rely on to access or use Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel's goods or services, reasonable efforts will be made to provide advance notice. In some circumstances such as in the situation of unplanned temporary disruptions, advance notice may not be possible.

Notifications will Include:

In the event that a notification needs to be posted the following information will be included unless it is not readily available or known:

- goods or services that are disrupted or unavailable
- reason for the disruption
- anticipated duration
- a description of alternative services or options

Notifications Options:

When disruptions occur Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel will provide notice by:

- posting notices in conspicuous places including at the point of disruption, at the main entrance and the nearest accessible entrance to the service disruption and/or on the Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel website;
- contacting customers with appointments;
- verbally notifying customers when they are making a reservation or appointment; or
- by any other method that may be reasonable under the circumstances.

F. Feedback Process

Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel shall provide customers with the opportunity to provide feedback on the service provided to customers with disabilities. Information about the feedback process will be readily available to all customers and notice of the process will be made available by through the Manager on Duty, or our Director of Rooms. Feedback forms along with alternate methods of providing feedback such as verbally (in person or by telephone) or written (hand written, delivered, website or email), will be available upon request.

Submitting Feedback:

- (416) 595-2541
- 370 King Street West, Toronto ON M5V 1J9
- amrit.cheema@hyatt.com
- <https://toronto.regency.hyatt.com>

Customers who wish to provide feedback by completing an onsite customer feedback form or verbally can do so to any Front Desk Agents at the Front Desk of the hotel.

Customers that provide formal feedback will receive acknowledgement of their feedback, along with any resulting actions based on concerns or complaints that were submitted.

G. Training

Training will be provided to:

- a) all employees, volunteers, agents and/or contractors who deal with the public or other third parties that act on behalf of Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel; for example: salespersons, drivers, vendors, event operators, call centers and third party marketing agents; and,
- b) those who are involved in the development and approval of customer service policies, practices and procedures.

Training Provisions:

Regardless of the format, training will cover the following:

- Instructions on how to interact and communicate with people with various types of disabilities.
- Instructions on how to interact with people with disabilities who:
 - use assistive devices;
 - require the assistance of a guide dog, service dog or other service animal; or
 - require the use of a support person (including the handling of admission fees).
- Instructions on how to use equipment or devices that are available at our premises or that we provide that may help people with disabilities.
- Instructions on what to do if a person with a disability is having difficulty accessing your services.
- Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel's policies, procedures and practices pertaining to providing accessible customer service to customers with disabilities.

Training Schedule:

Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel will provide training as soon as practicable. Training will be provided to new employees, volunteers, agents and/or contractor who deal with the public or act on our behalf during our New Hire Orientation. Revised training will be provided in the event of changes to legislation, procedures and/or practices.

Record of Training:

Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel will keep a record of training that includes the dates training was provided and the number of employees who attended the training

Notice of Availability and Format of Documents

Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel shall notify customers that the documents related to the Accessibility Standard for Customer Service are available upon request and in a format that takes into account the customer's disability. Notification will be given by posting the information in a conspicuous place owned and operated by Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel, the Hyatt Regency Toronto Hotel website and/or any other reasonable method.
