

The Best Chicago Restaurants For Weddings

Walk straight down the aisle to dinner

by Naomi Waxman and Eater Staff | Updated May 9, 2023, 11:10am CDT

Wedding planning is often a challenge, so allow Eater Chicago to lighten that load. If a banquet hall or public park isn't the vibe, couples may consider nuptials at one of these Chicago restaurants. Don't worry about finding a caterer and venue — these restaurants have great food and beautiful private event spaces. Simplify the process and spend that time searching for a photo-worthy floral display or keepsake cufflinks.

Chicago Athletic Association - The Unbound Collection by Hyatt

A striking reborn hotel on Michigan Avenue, CAA is a favorite among the city's wedding venues for its gorgeous architecture and numerous spaces that are semi-private or available for a full buyout. These include the historic Cherry Circle Room and the Drawing Room, which also houses a library and "Grand Fireplace."

OPEN IN GOOGLE MAPS

 12 S Michigan Ave, Chicago, IL 60603

 (312) 940-3552

 Visit Website

